

Dr John Roddam

John was born and raised in Eastern Canada. John and his wife Holly have four adult children and four awesome granddaughters. The Roddam's served in three Anglican parishes in Nova Scotia before moving with their family to Vancouver, BC in 1994. John served as Rector (Senior Pastor) of St. Luke's Episcopal Church from 2000 to 2010 – the Mother Church of the Charismatic Renewal Movement which has yielded the greatest harvest of souls in church history.

John retired from parish ministry in 2019 and now mentors leaders and serves the Body of Christ through conference & retreat speaking, etc. John has ministered extensively in SE Asia, China (among Underground Leaders), India (among Church Planters), and the UK.
